

Table of Contents

Part 1: Answering the Big Questions 1-22

1.1	Don't all kids eventually drink or do drugs?	1
1.2	Can't kids use safely at home?	4
1.3	I used and I'm ok; why can't my kids?	6
1.4	What About the Europeans?	9
1.5	Issues Parents May Want to Know About	12
1.6	Adults Should be Present in Drug Ed Classrooms	14
1.7	Students are Selective Listeners	16
1.8	Parental Fear can Elicit Irrational Behavior	17
1.9	Practical Jokes and Drugs are a Bad Mix	19
1.10	Schools Need Clearly Outlined Drug Policies	20

Part 2: What Parents Need to Know 23-72

2.1	Never Underestimate Your Power	23
2.2	Communication	25
2.3	Start With the Basics	26
2.4	The Big Three	27
2.5	Have an Active Role in Your Teenager's Life	27
2.6	Have a Curfew	33
2.7	Have a Stated Policy of Non-Use	36
2.8	Look for Teachable Moments	39
2.9	Have a United Front	42
2.10	Create a Family Mission Statement	44
2.11	You are the Most Powerful Role Model	47
2.12	Discuss the Consequences of Use Before it Occurs	49
2.13	Teach Your Children to Set Goals	53
2.14	Help Your Children Achieve Their Goals	55
2.15	The One Question Your Kids Will Always Ask	63
2.16	Monitor Internet Use in Your Home	68
2.17	Medicine Chests and Liquor Cabinets	69
2.18	One Final Thought	72

Part 3: Some Kids Are Going to Use Drugs and Alcohol 73-108

3.1	A Sad Truth: Some Kids are Going to Use	73
3.2	Perspective is Key—What is Actually Happening	75
3.3	Your Choice—Are You Proactive or Reactive?	77
3.4	A Parent's Challenge—React, or Respond?	79
3.5	You're in the Right Place	81
3.6	The Plan of Action	82
3.7	Possible Scenarios	83
3.8	Possible Responses by Your Child	84
3.9	Keep Your Head, but Don't Ignore the Facts	85
3.10	My Kid is Drunk—Now What?	86
3.11	Rise and Shine, Darling!	87
3.12	What to Say; How to Say It	88

3.13	Now it's Their Turn to Talk; Yours to Listen	90
3.14	The Biggest Lie Ever Told: "It's Not Mine."	91
3.15	Partial Truths are Still Lies	92
3.16	The First Time Probably isn't the First Time	93
3.17	Do not be Thankful it's Only...	94
3.18	Should You Drug Test?	95
3.19	The Biggest Consequence—Friends	98
3.20	The Goal of Consequences	100
3.21	Should You Contact Other Parents?	101
3.22	When Other Parents Encourage Use	103
3.23	What's Next—How to Turn This in Your Favor	105
3.24	What if it's Bigger Than You Can Handle?	107

Part 4: How Did You Become the Drug Guys? 109-125

4.1	Kelly's Story	109
4.2	Jonathan's Story	113
4.3	Then and Now—Over Two Decades Later	122
4.4	Miles To Go Begins	125

Links and References 126-129